1. The Soviet AAA camp south of Apetlon. (P 48/X 7h) was unoccupied on 2 February 1951. No motor vehicles were seen on the parking lots there. A guard detail of one officer and seven TM, all wearing red-bordered black epaulets, was stationed in the former German customs office in Apetlon. The guards usually loitered in the local inns.
2. In November 1950, the AAA camp had been occupied for three weeks by about 200 troops, including about 60 officers. The troops had arrived in small groups by rail, carrying no arms and wearing red-bordered black epaulets and black-bordered blue epaulets.

* Comment. The AAA camp south of Apetlon has been used so far by AAA units of the Central Group of Forces for summer exercises exclusively.
